

Stowe Arts & Culture Council Meeting Minutes

Akeley Building & Zoom

March 21, 2022, 9:00 a.m.

In attendance: Cindy Weber, Kelly Holt, Mort Butler, Lynn Paparella, Beth Liberman, Cheryl Casey

Call to order, 9:06 a.m.

- I. Approval of minutes of February 28, 2022
  - A. Motion to accept from Kelly
  - B. Second from Mort
  - C. Minutes accepted unanimously
- II. Marketing update and budget.
  - A. Mort reminded everyone to submit photo and video assets to the shared google folder for the Champlain team to use in creating a promo video showing an array of arts and culture events and activities in Stowe.
  - B. Kelly will start populating our social media this week to help out across our communication channels.
  - C. Cindy reported that we have spent $607.28 of our $2000 annual budget. Budget FY is over June 30.
  - D. Sharon has submitted the new banner for printing.
- III. Select Board attendance - Kelly, Mort, and Rachel have been at most of the meetings.
  - A. Mort - There isn't a lot of arts and culture discussion at those meetings, but it is good to be in attendance.
  - B. Rachel will cover the next Select Board meeting.
- IV. WCC - no updates because no one attended the meeting on March 18.
- V. New business and updates:
  - A. Cheryl summarized the upcoming STG season and tickets available April 1.
    1. Season begins with a one-person show, Tru, performed by John Weltman on July 1 and 2, and then Our Town, Bullets Over Broadway, and A Little Night Music.
    2. Season ends October 15.
  - B. Lynn will be stepping down as Vice-Chair but will stay on until someone steps into the spot; she will still be on the committee.
  - C. No additional information on the hammock project.
  - D. Beth summarized the upcoming JCOGS event, "Passover/Easter Interfaith Teach -In on Housing and Homelessness," in-person and online on Wednesday, March 30, at 6:30 p.m. Panel speakers include Sue Minter and Kim Anetsberger.
- VI. Motion to adjourn by Mort
  - A. Seconded by Kelly
  - B. Motion approved unanimously

Adjournment 9:27 a.m.